DIVIDEND PAYING Oil and Mining Stocks.

As the Osage Petroleum Company began regular monthly dividends in January, the stock is now entirely withdrawn from the market and cannot be furnished by the company at any price.

The only stocks that we can place for the next week is Guaranteed Combination No. 85 at $100 for 1,000 shares under the following guarantee of Douglas, Lacey & Co., Bankers and Brokers.

"Being familiar with the present conditions and prospects of these companies, we do not hesitate to guarantee to any purchaser of the stocks represented in Combination No. 85, that from January 1, 1906, each purchaser of this combination will receive a minimum interest of 10 per cent. annually on the investment, payable semi-annually, July and January of each year thereafter; and in the event that the directors of these companies should not declare dividends aggregating this amount, the firm of Douglas, Lacey & Co., financial agents, will advance cash to this amount."

Only 100 of these combinations will be sold, all additional subscriptions for same will necessarily be returned.

CONSTABLE WEST DEAD.

Passed Away at His Home On West Seventh Street
Monday Night.

A FAITHFUL OFFICER.

Was a True Democrat And One of the Best Known Men in the County.

After being confined to his bed a little over two weeks, with a complication of diseases, Mr. W. H.
West died at his home on West Seventh street Monday night. Three children—Mrs. Jennie Owen, Miss Fannie West and R. A. West—survive him.

Mr. West was one of the most extensively known citizens of the county. He was elected Constable of the Second Magisterial District several years ago, which office he filled efficiently for several terms and was re-elected last November for another term of four years.

Before moving to the city a score or more years ago, Mr. West was engaged in stock raising and merchandising on his farm in the Western part of the county, which brought him in contact with the people of that section of the county. He was generally popular and was considered a good business man and was quite successful.

Constable West was a Democrat and never failed to give his party his most ardent support, often being in positions when loyalty to Democracy jeopardized his business, but throughout he always remained true to his party.

Though suffering from a complication of diseases for many months, being a man of great vitality for his years, he withdrew from the duties of his office only when his physical condition compelled him.

Mr. West was 75 years of age and was for a number of years a member of the Methodist church. Funeral services took place at his late residence Tuesday afternoon and the remains of one of our oldest native citizens were laid to rest in Hopewell.

INSPECTION COMING.

Local Company Will Be Inspected April 16.

Adj. Gen. Haley on Saturday last issued orders for the annual inspection of the organizations composing the Kentucky State Guard, to begin on April 9 next, and continue from day to day until all have undergone inspection. Melville S. Jarvis, of the Fourth infantry, United States Army, and Col. Noel Gaines, Inspector General of the Kentucky Guard, will conduct the inspection. In each instance the inspection will be held at the company armory at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The inspection of Capt. Clark's company will be held on April 16.

The inspection of the regimental headquarters will also be held here at the same time.

OLD CITIZEN GONE.

Wm. H. Smith Aged About 75 Years Died Tuesday.

News of the death of Mr. William H. Smith was received here yesterday morning.

Mr. Smith was one of the oldest citizens of this county and was ill but a short time before his death.
He was about 75 years of age and is survived by his wife and two sons, Thomas and Marion. Mrs. Smith is an aunt of Messrs. Frank and Bailey Waller, of this city. He was a man of strict integrity and held in high esteem by all who knew him. The burial took place in the family burying ground, near Gracey, yesterday afternoon.

But Little Doing in Circuit Court This Week.

BENTON NOT INDICTED.

Tom Dattilo Files Petition for Naturalization Papers.

The Commonwealth docket was completed on Tuesday and the remainder of court will be taken up in the disposition of common law and equity matters. The petit jurors will not be dismissed for some time, however.

The case of John Cheaney, under indictment for murder, was called Tuesday morning, but trial was not entered into. By agreement of counsel, an order was made continuing the case until the seventeenth day of June term.

In the matter of John Benton, charged with shooting and in jail awaiting the action of the grand jury, said jury having failed to indict, on motion of the Commonwealth the defendant was released from jail.

Joe Stratton, colored, was fined $20 for gaming. Stratton entered a plea of guilty.

Thomas Gaetano Dattilo filed a petition on yesterday, asking that he be naturalized.

WARE'S AMENDMENT

Removed Most of the Kicking Against the Cow Law.

There seems to be no great dissatisfaction over the passage of the "cow law" by the City Council. Even those who were opposed to the proposed ordinance were satisfied by the amendment offered by Councilman Ware, postponing the operation of the law until May 1. Mr. Ware was an original and outspoken advocate of the law, but in a spirit of fairness thought the owners should be given a month or two to arrange enclosures for their cattle.

This wise amendment has doubtless caused the law to be looked upon with almost general favor.

The Sick

Mrs. E. M. Jones, of Newstead, is very ill of pneumonia.

Dr. T. W. Blakey is convalescent but it will take some time yet for him to fully recover.

Mr. Thos. W. Long is still confined to his room, but will probably be able to come down town in a few days.

Mrs. E. Keegan, who has been very sick for several weeks, is much improved and is able to sit up in bed some.

Mrs. J. M. Cravens has been confined to her bed for several weeks, and while her condition is not considered critical, she has been a great sufferer. She was some better yesterday.

Mr. Ike Hart, who had to be operated on in Cincinnati for some organic trouble, is getting along nicely. Mrs. Hart and daughter, Mrs. Lowenthal, are with him and will remain for a week or longer.

Judge Landes Presided.

During the absence of the regular Judge for a few days, Judge Landes was called to the bench and presided with his usual dignity and satisfaction to the bar.

Call for Meeting.

The County Committee of the Dark District Tobacco Association will meet in this city next Monday, March 26, at City Court room.

W. W. RADFORD, Chairman.

Mrs. James Ware has gone to Cincinnati to spend a few days with her husband.
